

herbst FBI.net

Information and Knowledge
Management Solution

HerbstFBI.net Personal

Use Herbst FBI.net as your Personal Diary. The exciting thing about Herbst FBI.net is that you can access this diary from any place in the world via a computer, mobile phone or any other device once you have internet access.

You can organise your information, put it into the designated folders that are organised in a "tree" format. If you do not remember what folder you stored the information you can find it easily using the built-in search facility.

You can use it as a diary to store all your contacts and memos. You can also archive all your mail and important personal documents such as copies of your Passport or CV. You can also copy from the Internet interesting articles, statements and place them into HerbstFBI.net or file away your favourite web-links and your comments about these sites. If you have too much paper on your desk to throw them away, you can scan them and keep them all in FBI.net. You can also use Herbst FBI.net as a planning tool, creating folders for each month or year.

Your information is always protected from unauthorized users. Also you will not lose any information if your system breaks down or a virus damages files on your computer.

HerbstFBI.net Family

See <http://herbstfbi.net/family>

Keep in touch with your family and friends! HerbstFBI.net Family can be a place where your family can meet even if you live in a different city.

You can share pictures and personal information. You can correspond with your family and friends, carry on dialogues. You can also use it to archive, store photo albums, a family history, keep a diary of special incidents and big events in your child's life. Create as many sections as your imagination allows.

Anyone who has enough privileges can read your messages or leave their own opinions. It's like a Guest book, but much more practical!

Herbst FBI.net is spam-free. This ensures only family and friends have rights to read and edit the folders. However, some family members you may only want to allow read only access to certain folders. Herbst FBI.net lets you do this.

Users can subscribe to the folder changing option for a particular folder so that every time the folder is changed by another user, the subscriber will receive a notification to their mobile phone, email, ICQ or MSN Messenger. This means members of your family can be alerted when a new message from a family member has appeared in Herbst FBI.net. Individual folders can be protected by passwords and only selected users can access these folders. Such family databases can also contain important information such as family addresses, phone numbers and other contact information. If a contact changes, a person can change it in Herbst FBI.net.

HerbstFBI.net Virtual Club

Herbst FBI.net can unite people with a common interest or hobby. For example stamp collectors, those interested in politics or painting, sport's fans and players, students, fan club, etc.

In Herbst FBI.net users can share ideas, discuss topical events, read news and interesting articles in the area they are interested in. Herbst FBI.net is a super-interactive hobby site.

You can create an Internet hobby community, the members of which can be allowed to edit folders or read other member's folders. Personal folders can be set up also common folders as required. The information in the folders cannot be lost because of a number of security features – recycle bin and version control. The users can also subscribe to the folder changing notification which can be set up to alert members of news or notices.

Exchange ideas and have discussion forums in your HerbstFBI.net virtual club!